

Resource List for Teachers

CalRecycle—CalRecycle.ca.gov/Education Services for teachers and administrators including curriculum, program models and more.

Earth 911—Earth911.com Find recycling centers and learn recycling basics.

The Story of Stuff Project—StoryOfStuff.com Includes curriculum, short films, and other resources to promote sustainable living.

PBS Kids Loop Scoops—PBSkids.org/loopscoops Videos to get you thinking about the stuff in your life.

Bag It—BagItMovie.com A documentary about plastic bags and their effect on waterways, oceans, and even our bodies.

Bring Your Own Bag Campaign—IGotMyBag.org Why reusable bags are better than paper OR plastic.

Junk Mail Reduction Campaign—StopJunkMail.org and CatalogChoice.org Recycling junk mail is good, but it's even better to stop getting it.

Go Green Initiative—GoGreenInitiative.org Training tools to create a “culture of conservation” in your community.

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency—EPA.gov/students Homework resources, ideas for school projects, lesson plans, games and quizzes.

Waste-Free Lunches—WasteFreeLunches.org Information to start or participate in a waste-free lunch program.

School Yard Clean Ups—www.coastal.ca.gov/publiced/schoolyard/ – show students that environmentally responsible behavior can begin at their school and in their own neighborhood.